Orion Construction

Professional Construction and Building staff are retained in all types of business and are often the backbone of an organisation covering a diverse range of industry sectors.

Our team works with the most successful, talented and experienced professionals in the industry – matching skill sets and personal preferences to permanent, contract, interim and temporary roles across Construction Services, Energy, Power and the Public Sector. Our experienced recruitment consultants offer insight and expertise across our specialist areas and invest a lot of time into understanding our clients' needs and requirements.

With the right people in place, productivity is increased and your business operates at peak capacity. Finding talented individuals with the right skills to operate in environments from small enterprises through to large shared service centres and international head offices, is what we excel in.

Orion Group has over 30 years of recruitment experience across a number of wide and diverse industry sectors.

Orion Construction focuses on sourcing the employment needs of construction related disciplines from Directors, Civils, PMs and Compliance positions, to support roles and sourcing professionals with the evolving demand for their skills at businesses throughout our UK and overseas locations.
